DISCLAIMER

CoreShares Index Tracker Managers (RF) (Pty) Ltd ("the Manager"), Registration number 2006/006498/07, is a company incorporated in South Africa as a Manager of collective investments schemes in securities ("CIS") in terms of Section 42 of the Collective Investments Schemes Control Act ("CISCA") and is supervised by the Financial Services Board. The Manager entered into a Representative Agreement with the Issuer (CoreShares Global Investments PCC) the terms of which in accordance of Section 65 of CISCA and makes the Manager responsible for, amongst other matters, the marketing and distribution of the Foreign Collective Investment Scheme ("FCIS") to South African Investors. The Manager therefore may be used as the primary contact point for this ETF. The registered address of the Manager is 5 Arundel Close, Kingsmead Office Park, Durban, 4001. The Custodian is Société Générale Johannesburg Branch.

This document is provided for information purposes only and is not a solicitation or an offer to buy or sell any securities mentioned herein. Coreshares S&P 500 Exchange Traded Fund is authorised by the Financial Services Commission of Mauritius ("FSC") and is suitable only for such persons described in the relevant prospectus and the Securities Act 2005. The portfolios track the performance of a particular index and so outperformance of the index is not the objective. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. The price of units and the income derived from them can go up as well as down and you may not get back the original amount invested. The Manager does not provide any guarantee either with respect to the capital or return of a portfolio.

This document and any other information supplied in connection with the Manager is not advice as defined and/or contemplated in terms of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act and, therefore, investors are encouraged to obtain their own independent advice prior to buying participatory interests in a CIS portfolios issued by the Manager.

Investment in the portfolio carries substantial risk. There can be no assurance that the investment objectives will be achieved and investment results may vary substantially over time. Investment in the portfolio is not intended to be a complete investment programme for any investor. Prospective investors should carefully consider whether this investment is suitable for them in light of their circumstances and financial resources

Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (CIS) are generally medium to long term investments. The value of participatory interests may go down as well as up. CIS are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. A schedule of fees and charges is available on request from the company. Commission and incentives may be paid and if so, would be included in the overall costs. The portfolios track the performance of a particular index and so outperformance of the index is not the objective and, therefore, there are no performance fees at all.

Unlike traditional unit trusts, Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) are CIS that trade on stock exchanges. Trading in ETFs will incur the normal costs associated with listed securities, including brokerage, settlement costs, other statutory costs and administrative costs. The price at which ETFs trade on an Exchange may differ from the Net Asset Value price published at the close of the trading day, because of intra-day price movements in the value of the constituent basket of securities. The portfolio is valued on every business day at 17h00.

The current price means the net asset value, which is the total market value of all assets in the portfolio including any income accruals and less any quantifiable and non-quantifiable deductions from the portfolio divided by the number of participatory interests in issue.

The ETFs trade on the JSE during JSE trading hours. The NAV is published daily and is available on the website www.coreshares.co.za CoreShares S&P 500 tracks the performance of the S&P 500® Index. For a tracking error of the portfolio refer to the Minimum Disclosure Document. The index and its performance as tracked by the exchange traded fund can be viewed on the website www.coreshares.co.za. The General Investor Report is published on a quarterly basis and is available on request and on our website.

The Manager shall, wherever possible, avoid situations causing a conflict of interest. Where it is not possible to avoid such conflict, The Manager shall advise you of such conflict in writing at the earliest reasonable opportunity and shall mitigate the conflict of interest in accordance with its conflict of interest Management Policy. You may send a blank email with a subject "conflict of interest" to the compliance officer, should you need a copy of this policy. Complaints should be directed to the Compliance Officer. The Complaints Resolution Policy is available on request. The Compliance Officer's email address is compliance@coreshares.co.za.

Total expense ratio (TER) is a measure of a portfolio's assets that have been expended as payment for services rendered in the management of the portfolio or collective investment scheme, expressed as a percentage of the average daily value of the portfolio or collective investment scheme calculated over a period of a financial year by the manager of the portfolio or collective investment scheme. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TERs. The financial year of the portfolios is 31 December each year. The portfolio currently does not charge any initial fees, performance fees or advisory fees.
